COVID-19 vaccine clinics for Mackenzie and area

Beginning March 8, 2021, seniors aged 80 and older, and Indigenous peoples aged 65 and older, who are not living in independent or seniors' supportive housing can begin to call and book their appointment through the Northern Health call centre, according to the staggered schedule below.

The Mackenzie clinics will run March 31, 2021 to April 2, 2021 at varying times at the Mackenzie and District Hospital and Health Centre. You can expect your appointment duration to be approximately 10 minutes, with an additional 15 minute wait time before leaving the venue.

There may be variation in this info to the provincial schedule, as a result of Northern Health's small population sizes in some communities.

1-844-255-7555

Hours: 7am to 7pm, seven days a week

Your eligibility to call does not expire and you may call after the dates noted below. Depending on call volumes, there may be extended wait times to book an appointment. We appreciate your patience.

When you can call is based on your age

March 8, 2021	March 8, 2021	March 10, 2021
Seniors born in or before 1931 (90 years+) May call starting on Monday March 8, 2021, to book their vaccine appointment.	Indigenous peoples born in or before 1956 (65 years+) May call starting on Monday March 8, 2021, to book their vaccine appointment.	Seniors born in or before 1941 (80 years+) May call starting on Wednesday March 10, 2021, to book their vaccine appointment.

For more information, what you should have ready, and step-by-step instructions on how to call to book an appointment for yourself, for a family member, for a friend or neighbour, visit gov.bc.ca/bcseniorsfirst or northernhealth.ca/health-topics/covid-19-vaccine-plan.

Please note, this info is subject to change

Northern Health would like to thank each and every community for their help in allowing use of their venues in the planned COVID-19 vaccine rollout.